Worth Looking Into!

Most students, even though they sometimes try to deny it, look forward to the beginning of September, when the last boring days of summer are over and the doors of Corsicana High School are opened. New classes, teachers, subjects and friends always bring excitement to the student body. And let's not forget the familiar favorites that come along with each school year, also. Dances, pep rallies, athletic games, Homecoming and Prom are only a few of the welcomed events of each year that make school worth getting out of bed for. And last comes Graduation, the highlight of highlights for the Seniors.

For the 1987-88 school year the "in" look for CHS was winning. Sports victories, academic achievements, Regional cheerleading finalists and outstanding school life were a few of the goals accomplished, that made this year worth while.

We've got the good times and bad times of growing up, and we've got winners and losers in everything that we do, but during it all, everyone can see that We've Got The Look!

Being involved in extra-curricular activities is what makes high school fun and memorable.

Everyone looks forward to that Friday afternoon pep rally with a game and dance to follow. Also the bonfire and homecoming activities created an enthusiastic student body.

Have you ever thought about what high shool would be like if there weren't any activities? Clubs? Sports?

These things are often taken for granted. High school doesn't last long, so make the most of it while you have the opportunity. The following pages will show some of the most exciting and fun filled times shared at CHS, just Look What Counts . . .

Fashions

Corsicana High School was the place to find out all the latest fashions. Some of the popular outfits included acid washed clothes such as blue jeans, jackets, shirts and dresses. To top this off the girls had matching purses, belts and shoes. Also stylish during the 87-88 school year were "Units" worn by the girls. These outfits came in shirts, pants, skirts, multi-colored jumpers and matching belts. The girls also wore the new T-shirt dresses which had a variety of designs. Traditionally, Wranglers, ropers, penny loafers and top siders were worn throughout the year.

Early Bonfire Sparkes Homecoming

G. Senior Calico Anna Highnote is serious about this dance.

F Although our '87 Homecoming activities were fired up a little early by some unknown persons it was still an exciting week.

The week began with dress up days Monday through Friday. Half way through the week the student body each voted on one of the ten senior girls nominated for homecoming queen. They were Jennifer Brown, Amy Chiles, Alneatha Cox, DeAnna Dawson, Anna Highnote, Mary Ann Livingston, Amy Lucas, Shari Reese, Cassandra Terrell and Julie Young.

G The day before homecoming the Calicos, cheerleaders, and the band performed in a downtown pep rally. Directly after the pep rally everyone anxiously went to the bonfire only to find out it was burned close to the ground. The big day finally arrived and the halls were filled with mums loaded with cowbells and glittering streamers. The school day ended with a pep rally jam packed with CHS students full of spirit and waiting for a Tiger victory.

Later that night when the half time ceremonies began, the tension mounted. The names of the ten nominees were announced one at a time while they were being escorted by their fathers and brothers. The countdown was on when Mary Ann Livingston was named second runner up. Alneatha Cox was then announced first runner up. The game ended after the Tigers smothered Red Oak 42-11. Not only was this another victory for the Tigers, but also a victory for Jennifer Brown who was crowned 1987 CHS Homecoming Queen.

Several Corsicana High School students spent time during the summer attending various camps. The Calicos went to SMU All American Drill Team Camp in July. They received several honors such as most admired team of the day and of the week. They also received the Gussie Nell Sweepstakes Award. They were awarded this by scoring Division I rating in three dance critiques. After this they were invited to perform in the Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, California.

The journalism department went to Eastfield College in Dallas and attended an All American Publications workshop. The students went to various classes and workshops during the day. It was a hard working experience for the two staffs, but they enjoyed their stay at the Holiday Inn, a trip to Wet n Wild, shopping and eating out at a number of places.

Two of the three cheerleading squads spent a week at North Texas Cheerleading Camp in Denton during July. The Varsity Squad won the Award of Excellence finalist while the Junior Varsity Squad won the Spirit Award over the entire camp. Amy Chiles was awarded All American Cheerleader. Christy Davis, Mary Ann Livingston, and Tara Bell were nominated. In October, the Varsity Squad performed in Dallas and qualified for Regionals. In December they performed at the Tarrant County Convention Center in Dallas with hopes to regain their National Championship title.

Awards Day Highlights Achievements

The annual Awards Day ceremony was held Tuesday, May 10 in the high school auditorium. Awards were given to several students for their academic accomplishments made throughout the year. Receiving particular recognition were John Reasons and Hilary Humbert who completed their high school years with straight A's every six-weeks of every year.

Also, students who set records and those who excelled in UIL competitions were recognized and presented with certificates.

Scholarships were given to select students; many of whom were kept secret until their announcement at the assembly. In addition to academic department awards, the 1988-89 newspaper and yearbook editors and staffs were announced.

Seniors discover Graduation

Corsicana High Sschool Seniors met Monday, May 30 for graduation practice. Students showed up half asleep; dressed comfortably in shorts, t-shirts, and warm-ups; and very few girls wore make-up. As rehearsal ended, several Seniors left with their friends to spend one last day of fun together before many departed to carry out their plans elsewhere.

May 31 came quickly, and 285 graduating Seniors gathered outside the K. and Ida Wolens Special Events Center on the Navarro College Campus making last minute adjustments to their caps and gowns.

The commencement exercises began with a speech from Dr. James Price, school board president, followed by a greeting from Dr. T. Y. Harp. The Senior class officers each presented a bible reading to the class and the audience. Directly afterwards John Reasons, Valedictorian gave his speach then Hilary Humbert, Salutatorian gave hers.

The A Cappella Choir sang "Nothing Can Stop Me Now" and then the walk began for each of the sad, yet excited, seniors. After each student had received a diploma, Dena Gray , Student Council President, led the closing prayer. A large number of blue hats shot up into the air as the graduates filed out. Tears of joy and sadness rolled down the faces of many as friends hugged, congratulated, and said "Good-Bye."

Look Who's Involved

During the 1988 school year, one of the most important aspects of life was a sense of belonging. Everybody wanted to be accepted in some fashion or another, and one way was joining an organization or club.

There are as many as 50 organizations and clubs at Corsicana High, ranging from student government and vocational training to drill teams and foreign languages.

Being involved has a lot of advantages. Learning about others and making new friends are just a few.

This section not only shows what extracurricular organizations and clubs were offered to students, but also to Look Who's Involved in '88.

Student Council: At Its Best

This year, the Student Council was bigger and better. With Dena Gray as this year's president, the council went where no other Student Council had gone before.

The council sponsored two successful blood drives in which 278 units of blood were taken from the students and faculty.

The council also sponsored many other activities during the school year. In October, the council put together a Homecoming activity week. One of the biggest events during the week was the Copper/ Silver competition betwwen each class. The Sophomore class won the competition and kept their money while the rest of the money from the other classes went to aid needy people during Thanksgiving.

The Christmas Drive was another Student Council sponsored event. Gifts were given to Corsicana State Home children.

The council also recognized Black History Month. Student Council members had the faculty teach about a famous black person in their particular field, and guest speakers Charles Connally, James Nevels and Arnold Ray Hider came and spoke to the student body.

Award's Day and the Talent Show were also sponsored by the club. With activities as good as these, the Student Council helped bring the Look into '88.

TAFE Wins Outstanding Chapter Award

Several students from the CHS Chapter of the Texas Association of Future Educators attended the State Convention in February at Austin. The club won Outstanding TAFE Chapter.

The organization also sponsored activities throughout the school year. The club hosted a lasagna luncheon for the high school faculty and staff on a workday. Several members also tutored elementary school children. In the fall, the club sponsored a dance, and contributed cash to the Camp of the Rising Sun

Last summer, Mark Erwin and Maggie Buchmann attended a conference for bright propective educators in Bloomington, Indiana. The conference was sponsored by Phi Delta Kappa.

Q. Why did you select Spanish over any other foreign language?

A. Since we are so close to Mexico and the spanish minority is growing faster than any other in Texas, I need to be prepared to communicate with them. ---- Jason Manning, Senior

Students win superior ratings

Twenty-nine Spanish Club students competed in the Foreign Language Competition at Austin College in Sherman. Twenty-three superior ratings were won.

Besides competition, the club raised $150 for United fund in October and provided gifts for two State Home students in December.

Six students, Tracy Foster, Ellen Willis, Monica Holcomb, A. J. Douglass, Kelly Donaho and Lee Holliday, went to Spain over Spring Break.

The club also had a Christmas Party at Lila Gober's house, and a swimming party at Ellen Willis'.

Q. Why do you think French is considered the "language of love"?

A. French has always been considered the "language of love". Both the people and the country seem so emotional, and the language itself sounds soft and romantic.
Judi Legrand, Senior

French Club Wins Honors

The French Club had a very active year participating in UIL Foreign Language Competition, where Sondra Flores won two first place ribbons, NCARC Fair, the Christmas service project and they also competed in the downtown window decorations during Homecoming, which they won second place.

Besides these projects, the club held many bake sales, had pizza parties, went to Dallas to see "Le Petit Prince," "Jean de Florette," and "Manon des Sources."

German Club

Officers are: Rachel Erwin, Interclub Council representative; Brad Reynolds, president and Becky Glass, secretary-treasurer.

Q. What makes German such a unique language?

A. Its strong dependence on order structure. Every word has to be exactly correct in its sentence position and in its declension. Also, English is a Germanic language. ---- Brad Reynolds, Sophomore

German Club Keeps Busy

The German Club, sponsored by Renee Bennett, has been active at CHS for several years. The club participated in activities, such as the State Home Christmas Project and a Food Fair with student prepared dishes.

In May, they had a Fruhlingstag (Spring Thing) at Camp Fleming.

Drama Club Acts Up

The Drama Club competed in competitions, winning many awards. They also presented a showcase, featuring a collection of performances. With the addition of Elaine Hand, the Thespians are hopeful about the future.

"I hope the new Thespians will carry on the tradition we've started," said James Coslett, "and expand on it."

James Gooden concluded, "This has been a year of rebuilding and through our ups and downs, we have accomplished much."

B

Q. How has being in Drama helped you?

A. Drama has helped me to a great extent. It opened me up and let me be James Gooden. I can now look at the world in perspective and not be ashamed of expressing myself and showing what's inside my heart. ---- James Gooden, Senior

Yearbook staff provides students with the look of '88

This year proved to be one of the hardest and most hectic of all for the Corsican staff.

Twenty extra pages were added including sixteen addtion color ones that the staff provided. Spot color was also added to the Senior section, something that would make them be remembered for a longtime.

Although the staff had difficulty meeting deadlines, by pulling together to help one another, we managed to put out the 284-page book of memories.

The newest addition to the yearbook was the Academics section. Cosmetology, Commercial Art, Architecture, French, Word Processing and World Geography were featured in the book.

The entire staff worked together to sell $8,750 in advertisment and sold 625 books. All of these accomplishments allowed the staff to provide the student body with a wonderful book of memories that had the look for '88.

Paper, Staff Improve

With the guidance of Mrs. Conni Durbin, sponsor, and James Coslett, Editor-in-Chief, the Jungle Beast Journal made a turn for the better.

This year, the staff used different graphics, improved the layout designs and came up with a new logo for the nameplate. "I think the newspaper really went far and improved 100%," said Coslett.

One of the lastest additionals to the paper was the Student Forum, created by Coslett. It focused on the opinions of students and faculty over a given topic.

All in all, with the expansion of the staff and the improvement of the paper, the JBJ really had the look.

Calicos strut to the Freedom Bowl

Hard work and determination. That's what kept the Calicos going the entire school year, from pep rallies and football games to spring dance shows. This year the work paid off.

The Calicos were chosen from other drill teams across the country to participate in the festivities at the Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, California, where they danced with 250 girls during the half time show.

With the help of their new sponsor, Miss Annette Grizzle, the girls raised $19,000, the amount needed in order to attend the event. The members raised their money from car washes, garage sales, a chili supper, selling cotton candy and balloons at home football games and selling smoked chickens. They also auctioned themselves off to the highest bidder in the Lions Club Auction and cleaned up the alleys in downtown Corsicana.

The girls left for Anaheim during the Christmas Holidays. Once they got there, they practiced and practiced. They meet new friends and went to many places for entertainment. Disneyland, Universal Studios and Knott's Berry Farm were the main attractions. They also went to Beverly Hills, Hard Rock Cafe and took a shopping spree down Rodeo Drive.

All of the hard work paid off in the end for the drill team. They performed with the other girls on December 30 during the half time activities and had a great time all in one. The returning Calicos hope to return again next year for more fun in the sun.

Cheerleaders Place Sixth in Nation

Tumbling non-stop. Jumping to the outer limits. Chanting at the top of their lungs. "Striving to be the best" was something that the Corsicana High School Varsity Cheerleaders always did. And this year, it paid off.

The cheerleaders ventured off to Dallas during the Christmas Holidays in hopes of regaining the NCA title that was won in 1986. The girls did well in Regionals, where they received scores of 30-29-29 out of a possible 30 in each category.

They worked hard all year for the competition, despite the pep rallies, football games and appearances. Louis Houston, a NCA Cheerleader, came to Corsicana several times to help the girls with their routines.

Amy Chiles joined them for the competition after her trip from Hawaii where she performed, with other girls from around the country, in the Aloha Bowl.

Challenge Team

Q. Is the Challenge Team really a challenge?

A. The Challenge Team presents the opportunity for you to see how much you and your teammates know and learned through life on any given subject. The challenge comes from competing against other teams. ---- John Reasons, Senior

Challenge Team Wins Competitions

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Marianne Anderson, the Challenge Team had a victorious year.

The team won many competitions and represented the school well.

The Challenge Team is sponsored by the Waco Rotary Club and involves sixteen central Texas schools. It began in 1967 in Waco, and Corsicana started participating in the 1970-71 school year.

The requirements for being a member is to be intelligent, able to read a lot and recall information quickly.

Looking Over The Subject

Not just the required academic classes are offered, but many elective courses as well. Choices available include everything from tough advanced academic courses such as Calculus, and Biology II, to exciting and fun classes such as Drama, Dance and Woodworking.

Before preparing your schedule, classes must be considered, that's why students at Corsicana High School are "Looking Over The Subject!"

A. Lisa Ware and Veronica Granada are "supposedly' doing their classwork.
B. Hilary Humbert and Ian Pendleton are such extra achievers that they stay in class after everyone else leaves!
C. David Huffman gives the photographer a curious look while in Mr. LePoris's class.
D. Dena Gray finds her French test somewhat humorous.

Biology II "Pigs" Out!

If you have a weak stomach, Biology II may not be the best choice of subjects.

One of the more interesting projects in biology is the disection of fetal pigs. These pigs are taken from the mother before birth and sold to high school and college labs for disection and study. The pigs have muscles very close to the human and are studied to get an idea of how the human body's muscles function.

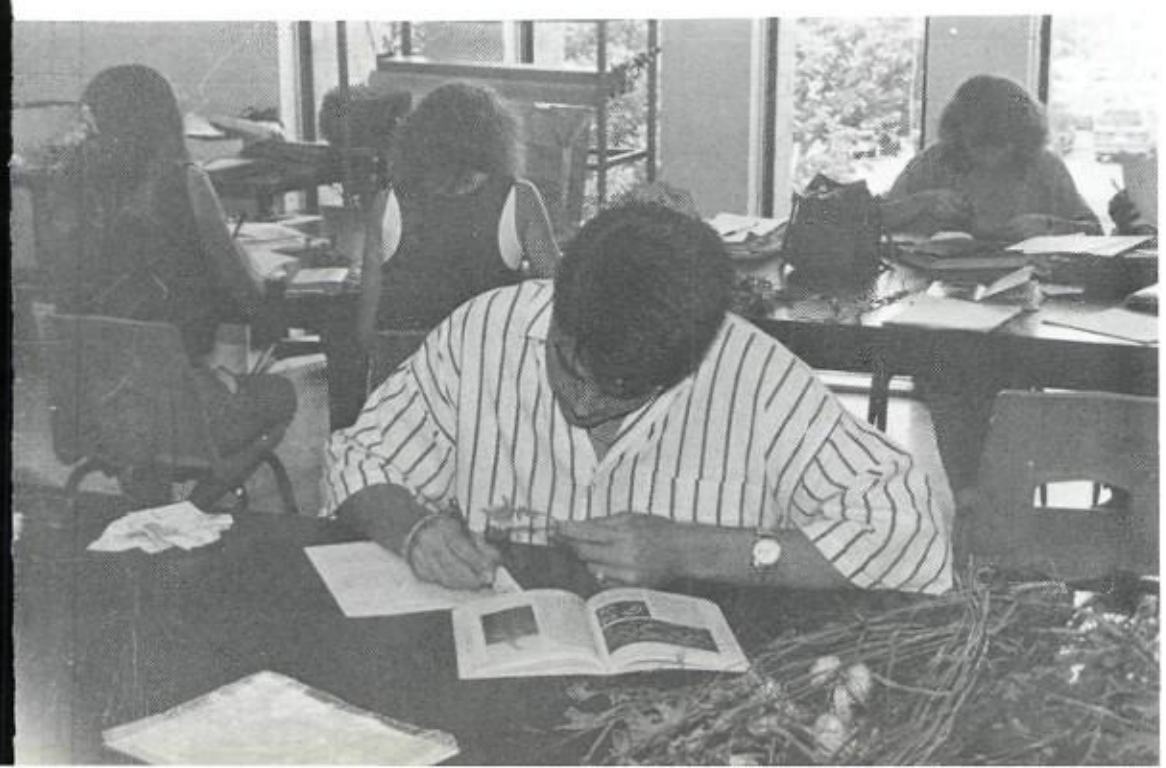
Plant collections were done at the end of the school year. To obtain a grade of "A", each student must collect a total of 50 plants--wild flowers, shrubs, and trees. Each plant must be classified and displayed in a notebook of some kind.

Most biology students are juniors and seniors. In order to enroll in Biology II, one must have completed Biology I.



A. Ms. Hoff lends a helping hand to biology students.
B. Michael Riley and Angie Stringer search for the Latissimus Dorsi.
C. Collecting flowers isn't as easy as it sounds.

Commercial Art Draws Attention!

There is a glass cabinet in the hall running in front of the office that always draws a lot of attention. The cabinet belongs to Mrs. Harwood's Commercial art classes. "Signs of the Times" is the window's motto and displays of artwork by art students can be seen there.

This year the commercial artists have provided many services in addition to their study of design. Some of their projects include: creating pamphlets for the Warehouse Living Arts Center, and decorating for the annual football banquet.

Commercial Art provides talented students with the opportunity to refine their skills in the areas of layout, lettering and design.

To enroll in commercial art requires approval from Mrs. Harwood and successful completion of a beginning art class.

French Provides Basics In The Language Of Love

"French offers students experi-nce in a foreign language. As col-ge entrance requirements become ore demanding, and as global mmunications and transporta-on improve, knowledge of a for-gn language becomes increasingly portant," said Mrs. Terlouw.

The French students attended o French movies in Dallas this ar. They were "Jean de Florette" d "Manondes des Sources." The ench club also particpated in rious school and social activities ch as, the downtown Homecom-g Poster contest, in which they k second place. A Fall Pizza rty was held, as well as a Christ-s gag gift celebration. In April dents enjoyed a "gourmet" din-r party to sample French foods.

er 100 million people in the rld speak French. Next to glish, French is the most mmonly spoken language in world.

Students in French worked on rious projects to help them learn re about other cultures. Most of French students chose penpals m French speaking countries as ll as other countries around the rld.

Charity work was done for the NCARC by volunteers in the French club.

Sondra Flores, senior French club member, attended the Foreign Language Weekend at Austin College in Sherman. She won superior ratings on Reading Comprehension and Poster.

French classes have students from all four grades. Students wishing to enroll in the course need to have strong reading and language skills, and they should have an A or B average in college prep. or extended English.

Architecture Develop
Blue Print for Future

One of the interesting courses offered at Corsicana High School is Architecture. Architecture students are members of the Industrial Arts club, which also includes general drafting, and wood working. Students who wish to enroll in architecture must complete general drafting. "Architecture allows students to work individually on a project they have chosen. It also prepares them for a career as an architect," said Don Thompson.

Mr. Thompson's classes took many days out of regular class work to prepare for contest held at TSTI in Waco on April 29-30. Regional winners were selected and State qualifiers prepared for State competition held on May 6-7. For contest, each student developed his own house plan and drawings. Students also competed in on-site drafting and written exams.

Architecture is a good elective because students then know what to look for in a well built house, if and when they buy or build a home of their own.

Cedeno Hunter, Darryl Bersen, Chris Wood, Scott Neal and Daniel Owen placed in the Regional contest, while many other Industrial Arts students qualified for state.

Corsicana students won 21 "Best In Region" medalions, and also won the trophy for the high scoring 4-A school in the region with 269 points.

Bill Truitt was the high scoring student from Corsicana with 35 points, while Darren Boyd was close behind with 24 points.

World Geography
Introduces New Cultures

Mrs. Bennett's World Geography class isn't your ordinary dull subject. Students actually get to take part in and experience new cultures and new lands--they even learn to eat with chopsticks!

Ethnic foods are emphasize and sampled along with the culture of different countries.

World Geography provides an opportunity for students to see how landforms, climate, and other natural elements influence the way people live. It emphasizes that different does not mean weird or dumb.

Throughout the year students studied "traveling" from North Pole to South Pole and from east to west learning about each continent.

"World Geography provides an opportunity for students to see how landforms, climate, and other natural elements influence the way people live. It emphasizes that different does not mean weird or dumb," said Mrs. Bennett.

Mini research papers were completed on European countries as a class project. These papers revealed the diversity of the continent of Europe.

If World History is not your game, World Geography is the alternative offered, and it fullfils the 10th grade social studies requirement.

Word Processing Prepares Students For Computer Age

A. Cassandra Terrell works diligently during Word Processing class.
B. Senior Steven Petty loves Word Processing and his computer!

Corsicana High School added a new academic course this year--Word Processing.

Word Processing is offered to Juniors and Seniors as their computer credit, which may be taken in place of Computer Science.

In Word Processing, students receive hands-on computer experience that will better prepare them for the computerized business world. Students learn from two different programs: Lotus 1-2-3, and MultiMate. They also prepare letters, reports, and class work on disks and then print out final copies. Senior students found that the IBM computers were a big help with editting and printing their senior themes.

Word Processing students belong to the Office Education Association club. They have regularly scheduled meetings and participate in various activities. For Thanksgiving, each student prepared a gift for the residents at Twilight Nursing Home. Gifts were delivered during a personal visit by each student. B-craft Christmas gifts were sold, and bake sales held to raise money for such thing as parties and field trips.

On May 3rd the OEA club headed out for Dallas to tour the Infomart. During their visit they were given a tour of the IBM and AT&T showrooms. Before returning home they stopped for lunch at the Hard Rock Cafe.

In order to enroll for Word Processing, students must have completed a minumum of one semester of typing.

Cosmetology Provides Face Lifts!

Mrs. Anthony's cosmetology members are probably some of the busiest students in Corsicana High School.

Students participate in a wide variety of contests throughout the year. On October 23-24, students travelled to Denton for the 1987 Leadership Conference. Other contests students competed in include: the Cameo Hair Show on November 15; Regional Contest in Waco; and State Competition in Ft. Worth.

Cosmetology offers students the opportunity to receive their Cosmetologist license. This course taken by the individual would cost approximately $1,500-4,000.

Besides competing in contest, the cosmetology students helped make life a little better for others. Hair and nails of Sam Houston Elementary hearing impaired students were fixed, along with Northside Nursing Home residents, who arrive every Wednesday. Cosmetology students also raised money to buy some needy Corsicana High School students T-shirts.

In addition to a lot of charity and social work, the Cosmetology department raised money for the Louis Hicks Scholarship.

Faculty honors 13 with " W h o ' s W h o " selection

Being selected to "Who's Who" is one of the most prestigious honors a senior can attain at Corsicana High School because the selection is based on the respect the faculty has for that student, not merely on the student's popularity.

This year 13 seniors were honored with this title. Teachers were asked to consider leadership qualities, academic excellence, classroom participation and extra-curricular involvement in casting their votes.

Following the selection process, each honoree was given a list of questions. Their responses provide insight into their characters and priorities, which might explain why they tend to stand out from their peers in the Class of '88.

Each student was asked the following:

- List two adjectives to describe yourself.
- List the two accomplishments of which you are most proud.
- What college are you planning to attend?
- What do you plan to major in?
- What is your favorite expression?
- Who is your favorite music group or singer?
- What is your favorite movie?
- Who are your favorite teachers (2) ?
- Who was your most memorable high school sweetheart?
- What is your favorite pastime?
- In one word, describe your senior year.

Four years went by fast for the graduating class of 1988.

High school was fun and growing up together was great. We gained many new experiences and relationships that will never be forgotten. But now, sadly enough, it's time to go our separate ways. College, careers, marriage and families lie ahead in the near future.

A. Senior class favorites Anna Highnote and Keith Moore.
B. Senior officers John Reasons, vice president; Andy Dotson, president; Amara Hale, secretary; and DeAnna Dawson, treasurer.
C. Kelly Donaho and Eric Fisher take a break for a picture at lunch.
D. Students show their senior spirit at a fall pep rally.

As the ringing of the bell signaled the end of finals in May, the Class of '89 emerged from their rooms to the excitement of being seniors.

As juniors, they faced loads of homework from six classes and a part time job for many.

They were always on the run and under the gun. School became more study and less fun. Their minds started to drift from thoughts of school spirit toward their future.

They were filled with enthusiasm when they realized that they would be the top class at CHS next year. With this in mind, Look Who's Moving Up . . .

A. Junior class officers are (front row) Ashley Coursey, treasurer; Cheryl Young, secretary; (back row) Susan Hable, president and Billy Harlan, vice president.
B. Class Favorites: Susan Hable and Billy Harlan.
C. Angie Jackson daydreams of her boyfriend.
D. Lea Ricks and Brooke Glicksman get ready for a night out.

Looking Better

Sophomores started off this year looking better and feeling great. Since they were no longer considered as "FISH", they were more confident and bold. As far as school spirit, they could not be out done.

Although they did not become No. 1 in every competition, they still have two more years to achieve that goal. Good Luck, Class of 1990.

A. Class Officers are: Lauren Curington, president; Marci Satsky, vice president; Jessica Sullins, secretary and Rachel Erwin, treasurer.
B. Class Favorites: Ellen Willis and Bryan Smith.
C. Vannessa Littleton, Lovie Mitchell and Paula Ballard are examples that we're looking better.
D. Chris Manlove and Sherri Hill pay close attention in class.

The Freshman Class may have been a little scared at first, but they managed to out do the upperclassmen in may ways this year. Although they were the youngest ones, they made the most noise. They looked to every school day as having a positive influence on the future, knowing that they must prepare today for tomorrow's challenges.

Being considered a "FISH" seemed difficult at times for them, especially with all the jokes and dares that the upperclassmen thought of (such as finding Locker 517), but they'll soon have the same chance because now that they are in high school, There's No Looking Back . . .

A. Freshman Class favorites are Carol Lampkin and Ken Hayden.
B. Class Officers pictured are (seated L-R) Erin Cooper, treasurer; Carol Lampkin, president; (standing L-R) Kari Browning, vice president; Karen Egonis, secretary.
C. Joslyn Freeman and Colette Simpson are proud to be fish.

Teachers, counselors and administrators rarely enter their professions to become financially wealthy. Most truely feel that they have a "calling" to help young people. At CHS, this atmosphere is evident in almost every classroom and office.

But, the learning is not confined to the rooms. CHS teachers encourage students to get involved in extracurricular activities and sports to learn teamwork and responsibility.

These dedicated people pictured on the following pages have a great deal of knowledge to share. So when the tardy bell rings and the classroom door shuts, you'd better Look Who's Talking . . .

A. Mrs. Green tries to convince Angela Gould of the importance of her senior theme.
B. Mrs. LePoris gets a great deal of pleasure from donating a pint of blood.
C. Coach Tolbert attempts to impersonate Stevie Wonder.
D. Dr. Harp successfully combines his lunch with a little Commons duty.

"The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat" - words used often in the history of sports. In essence, they sum up the emotions experienced by the athletes at CHS.

John Nelson and Eddie Bator capped off an outstanding season by winning the state 4-A doubles championship in tennis. The girls volleyball team advanced to the playoffs, and the Tigers placed second in regionals in team tennis, and the girls' basketball team took the bi-district title.

An individual performance of note was turned in by Alneatha Cox, who placed second in state in the discus.

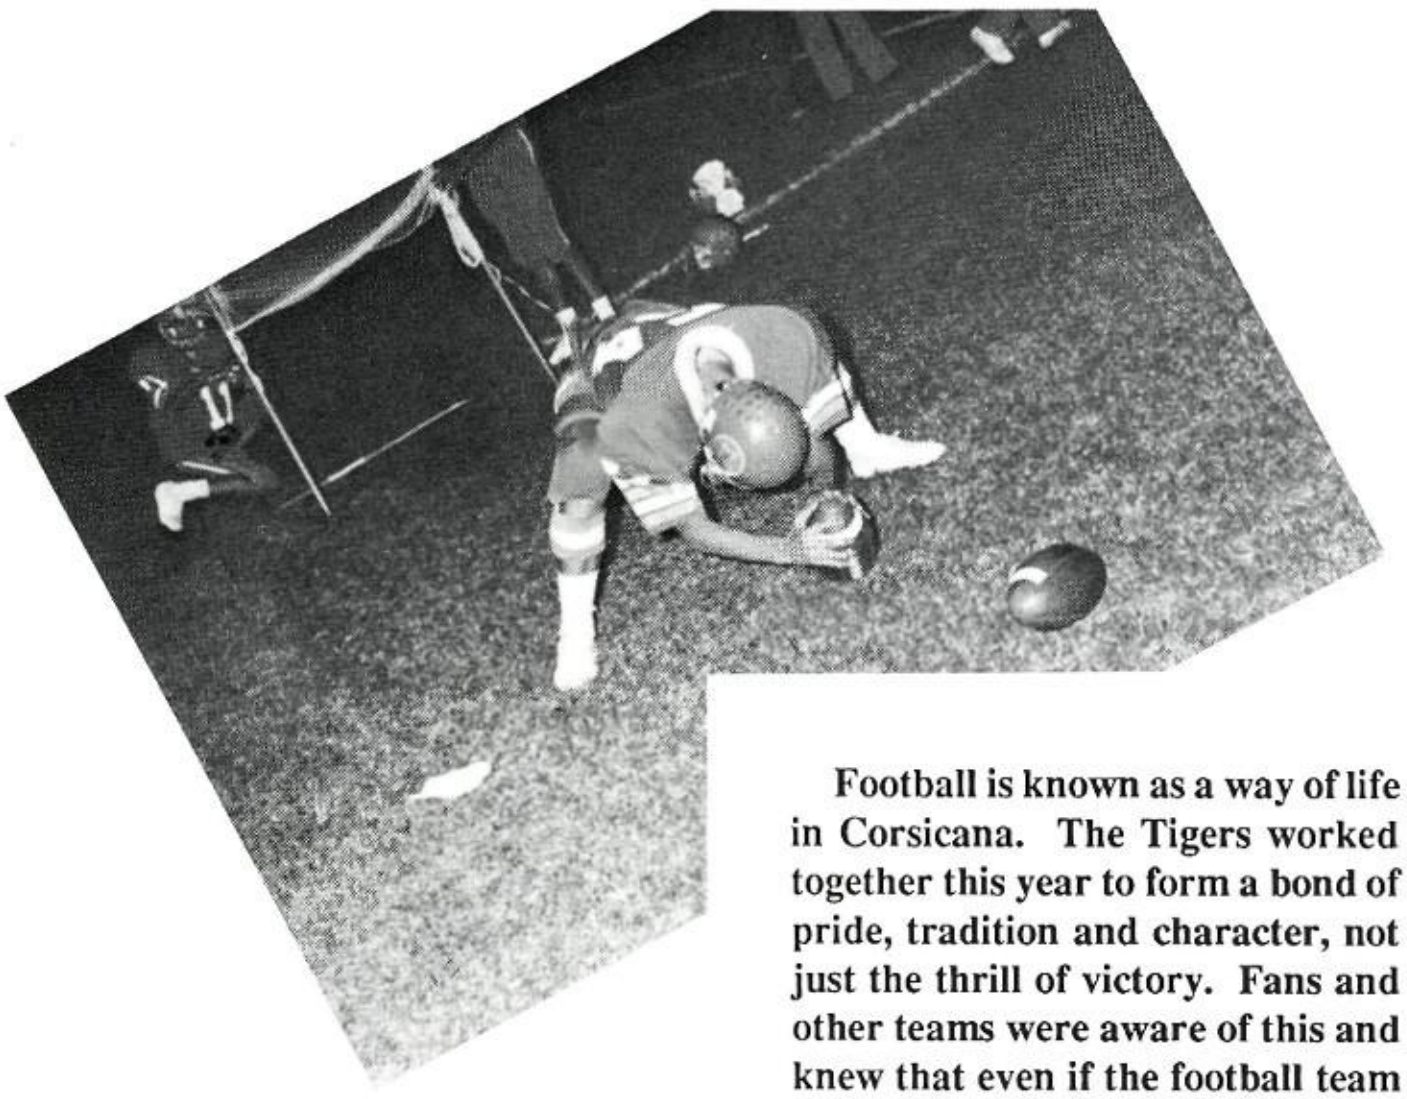
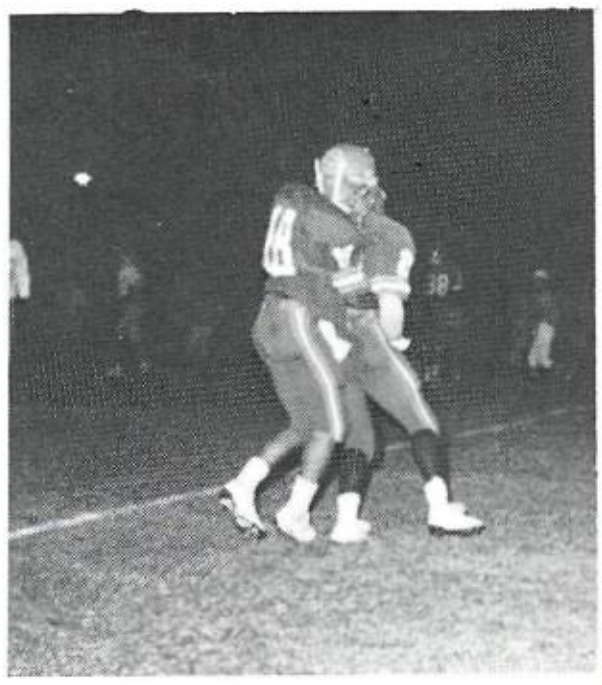
Tigers Finish Season 7-3;

Miss Play-offs for 1st Time in the 1980's





A. Danny Boyte practices his snap for PATs.
B. Mark Morris puts the moves on for a pre-game defensive drill.

Football is known as a way of life in Corsicana. The Tigers worked together this year to form a bond of pride, tradition and character, not just the thrill of victory. Fans and other teams were aware of this and knew that even if the football team was out-scored, the Tigers were always winners.

In years past, the Tigers pulled together to get past district and advance to the playoffs. Some teams tend to become dominate in a certain sport, but all good things must eventually end. A new season began in September, and the Tigers faced struggles not encountered in recent years.

Season openers do not make a season in football, but the Tigers took Palestine 28-7; and after all, a win is a win. The second week of the season, Corsicana was ranked No. 1 in the state. With this title, the team moved on to over-power Waco Midway 14-3.

The Tigers next had to play a tough game with South Grand Prairie, a good 5-A team. It was an exciting game with Corsicana losing their starting quarterback early, and the Warriors came away with a 21-5 win over favored Corsicana. This non-district set-back did not stop the Tiger's drive to a championship.

In the last 21 seconds, the Tigers kicked a 33-yard field goal for a 16-15 district-opening victory over Wilmer-Hutchins. Then it was off to Cedar Hill and Midlothian where the Tigers secured relatively easy wins, 26-14 and 42-6.

The next team to face the Tigers was Waxahachie. Corsicana was ready to play, but the Indians were on the warpath and upset the Tigers 30-20. This was a game to learn from, and the Tigers pulled together to highlight the annual Homecoming activities with a 42-11 win over Red Oak.

Traditional rival, Ennis, was next on the schedule, and the Lions pulled out a hard-fought 16-7 win over the Tigers for the first time in over a decade. Corsicana faced their final oppenent knowing that their season was virtually over. The pride of the Corsicana Tigers emerged and devastated the Lancaster Tigers 34-0, to end the season on a winning note.

Despite an excellent season record of 7-3, the Tigers missed the playoffs for the first time in the 1980's. For the players and coaches the season ended too early, but for true Tiger fans, the members of the 1987 Corsicana Tiger Varsity were still winners in the eyes of those who cared most.

The Girls' Golf Team completed another highly successful season, defending their district title. At various invitationals such as Ennis, Denton and Plano, the girls gained valuable experience.

At district, the team was lead by Tonya Farmer who received second medalist honors and Anna Highnote who was third. At the regional tournament in Denton, Tonya Farmer shot an outstanding opening day round to hold second place at the half-way point. Unfortunately, rain interupted her second round, slowing the course, and Tonya fell back in the pack, but still finished among the leaders.

Mandy Lee approaches a putt with excellent form.

The Corsicana Tennis Team ended their season on a winning note as John Nelson and Eddie Bator brought home the gold medal from the state tournament in Austin in May.

At the district championships, the boys won first and the girls finished third. Nelson and Bator, along with defending singles champion Gayla Fortner, took firsts. Boo Lee finished second and also advanced to regionals. Roney Polland and Ronald Hamann finished fourth in doubles.

At regionals in Denton, Nelson and Bator continued their winning ways to advance to state, while Fortner and Lee finished third to qualify as state alternates and considered among the top 12 players in the state in 4-A competition.

In Fall Team Tennis competition, the players competed in several tournaments including Killeen, Corsicana, and Ennis. They were regional finalists for the second consecutive year and finished with a 20-4 dual match record.

JV Tennis Team dominates district

Corsicana's JV Tennis Team dominated district play with first and second place finishes in boys' singles and girls' doubles, as well as a first place victory in girls' singles by Angie Stringer.

In girls' doubles, Shelley Jones and Karen Egonis took first over teammates Jessica Sullins and Natalie Locatelli. In boy's singles, Scott Settle triumphed over Eric Sims.

These young Tigers should provide the ingredients necessary to continue the dominance established in the last two years.

Girls' swim to strong showing as team finishes 7th in region

The Corsicana Girls' Swim Team plunged strongly through another season. They excelled in most meets including a tie for first at the Nacogdoches Invitational. Despite having to compete against much larger 5-A squads, the girls placed several individuals in the top six at district placing second overall.

Top qualifiers were Anna Leporis, Ashley Coursey, Stephanie Bauer, Rosemary Guillen, Julie Horton, Toni Whitener and Hilary Humbert. These girls advanced to the regional meet where they placed seventh. Leading the way was Anna Leporis with a third place finish and state alternate position in the 200 freestyle.

The Corsicana Powerlifting Team had another very successful year, once again proving their superiority in Texas by tying for the state title. The team entered four invitational meets placing first at Athens and North Lamar.

Out of the 14 lifters, 12 qualified for the regional meet and seven went on to the state competition at Texas A & M. Victor Franklin came away with a surprise state championship in the 198 lbs. class by posting his personal high marks during the competition.

Other team accomplishments included Walter Lewis in the 123 lbs. class who was second in the squat and set a state record of 440 lbs. lift; Jarvis Daniel, who placed sixth at state with a record of 630 lbs. in the dead lift; Leonard Franklin was fifth in the 181 lbs. class.

Micheal Johnson took second place in the 198 lbs. class; Chris Smith was fifth in the 242 lbs. class with a record of 630 lbs. in the squat, and Willie Kelley qualified in the superheavy weight division.

Varsity Track sprints to success

High on the list of the "unusual" was Kenneth Henry's 400 meter race in the finals at region. Henry ran a time of 45.4 seconds which would have been the best time in the nation this year. Close examination revealed that the meet officials had made an error in the placement of the starting blocks, therefore Henry only ran 385 meters. A re-run was held and Kenneth finished fifth.

Protests were made all the way to Austin, but Kenneth was not allowed to go to state. Kenneth does, however, hold the school, possibly the state, and maybe even the world record in the highly unusual 385 meter run!

Jay Bass, hampered by injuries, managed to vault at only three meets this year. He did win the district title and finished third at regionals, making him a state alternate for the second consecutive year.

Marcus Hines was a consistent winner in the 100 meter dash and the 200 and 400 meter relays. Gregg Back and Eric Jones achieved their personal bests at the district cross country meet held in the fall.

The highlight of the track season for many, though, came in the 1600 meter relay at the district meet. The Tigers won first place in a photo-finish, and the team of Kenneth Henry, Ricky Lusk, Keith Rogers and Chris Polk turned in a season best of 3:21.7.

Brad Powell placed fifth at regionals in the discus with a throw of 149"7', which is 5 feet short of the 25-year-old school record set by Jim Hagle back in 1963.

Chris Polk was a regional qualifier in the 200 meter and the 1600 meter relay. Keith Rogers and Fisher Johnson also qualified on the 1600 meter relay.

The JV team had a successful season posting wins at the Midlothian and Ennis Invitational meets. The freshman team was also victorious at Midlothian, Adamson and Ennis.

Front row (L-R): Tim Kelley, Stanley Anderson, Micheal Johnson, Keith Rogers, Jay Bass, Greg Felix and Gregg Back; middle row: Dwight McDade, Trey Hardiman, Tyronne Manning, Fisher Johnson, Terry Manning, Joseph Johnson and Robert Sneed; back row: Danny Boyte, Chip Vacek, James Jones, Jason Truitt, Chris Polk, Jeff Raindell, Brad Powell and Ricky Lusk. The Girl's Varsity Track Team worked hard this year to earn honors at various invitational meets such as Ennis, Palestine, Waxahachie and Chapel Hill.

The girls placed first at district, dominating the competition with 140 points. Highlights of the meet included: first place in the 400 & 800 meter relays; second in the 1600 meter relay; Terri Smith, 4th in the 100 meters; Donna Smith, second in the 200 meters; Erika Wynne first, and Terri Smith third in the 400 meters; Vanessa Littleton second, and Nekeitha White fifth in the 800 meters.

Other district finishers were: Alneatha Cox first, Cerissa Harris second, and Tasha Martin fourth in the shot put; Lila Gober fourth in the 3200 meters; Christie Watson fifth in the hurdles; Alneatha Cox first, and Julie Beale second in the discus.

At regionals, the girls finished fourth. Individuals who placed included Donna Smith, Erika Wynne, Cerissa Harris, Alneatha Cox and Julie Beale. Cox qualified for the state meet in the discus where on May 13 she placed second in the competition.

Look Who Supports The Tigers

This year, the Corsican staff sold over $8,500 worth of advertising for the yearbook. This enabled us to add more pages and more color.

Although the local economy has been somewhat depressed in recent years, the businesses of Corsicana have continued to actively support the students at CHS through their advertisements in the annual.

Many people consider these donations, but the CHS students spend a tremendous amount of money in Corsicana each week, and those companies on the following pages return the favor; just Look Who Supports the Tigers . . .

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp,
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
Now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say good-bye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school days from day one
Don't think of school as ending -
Think a new life has begun.

Congratulations Janifer,
From a little girl to a young woman you have become.
We are so very proud.

No matter how organized and qualified a staff may be, the production of any yearbook of this size requires the assistance of many outsiders. Countless people contributed to this book through word and deed, but several deserve individual recognition and a Special Thanks . . .

. . . to Dr. Harp and Mrs. Morgan for their faith and support of journalism, in general, and the yearbook, in particular.
. . . to Mr. Williams for his tolerance of yearbook students always in the halls and leaving school to sell ads, take pictures or get supplies.
. . . to Elaine Cloud and Ann Coker for their help in identifying students in pictures.
. . . to Doc (Bernie Camarillo), Ron Prueitt, Kim Dukes, Mike Montfort and Don Hupp for their photographic contributions to the sports' section.
. . . to the "Lunch Bunch" for being a sounding board and a source of encouragement at "crunch" times.
. . . to the Journalism I students who indexed many of the yearbook pages.
. . . to the Photography I students who came through at deadline time to take, develop and print many pictures.
. . . to the sponsors and coaches who endured the scheduling and rescheduling of group pictures.
. . . to the faculty members who released students to work on their sections at deadline time.
. . . to the C.I.S.D. administration and school board who provided the support, encouragement and financial backing necessary to produce a quality yearbook.
. . . to Dr. Steve Durbin for understanding the late nights and Saturdays spent working on this book.
. . . finally, to The 1988 Corsican Staff for their hard work, creative ideas, outrageous personalities and undying commitment to capturing "The Look of '88" that makes this annual a unique experience for all who read it.

Eddie Bator and John Nelson captured the State Championship in tennis, Alneatha Cox won 2nd place in state for her discus throw and Walter Lewis set a new state record in powerlifting. These are just a few of the many winners at Corsicana High School that participate in golf, Industrial Arts, swimming, debate, etc.

The year went by fast and although some won't admit it; the year was fun! Football games, dances, Homecoming, prom, and graduation highlighted the 87-88 school year. The memories and the accomplishments, as well as the goals make this year "Worth A Second Look."

A. Mandy Lee and Carl Moore take time out to pose for the birdie.
B. Lila Gober and Julie Young prefer mathematic group work!
C. Sophomore Sandy Corley sorts her many millions of books!
D. Senior Susan Hebert exclaims, "Lets party!"

A. Craig Carroll tries his cap and gown on for size.
B. DeAnna Horton and Chuck Rice enjoy their lunch together.
C. Senior guys dominate over the Juniors at the 1st annual volleyball game.
D. Bobby Diehl and Michael Stapleton discuss a serious matter during class.

A. Ronald Hamann is anxious to get to physics class.
B. Senior Orlando Williams still hasn't mastered the art of reading!
C. Lee Holiday awaits the end of class.
D. A different view of the yearbook staff.

Corsicana High School's 1988 Corsican, Vol. 72, was conceived, developed and produced by the yearbook journalism students at Corsicana High School and printed by Josten's American Yearbook Co., Topeka, Kansas. Representing the publisher were Mrs. Susi Berta and Mr. Jack Littlefield. The official portrait photographer was Kurvis Burns. Homecoming queen and runners-up portraits were supplied by Charla Holmes Photography, Corsicana.

Approximately 665 copies of this 284-page annual were printed on 80 lb. glossy enamel paper. The cover, designed by the staff, made use of Silver Hot Foil stamping over a laminated, multi-colored design. "Mistral" type was used on the cover as well as division pages.

All headlines, body copy and captions were created using the MacIntosh Plus Computer; Page Maker II and various Apple Computer software; and were printed on an Apple Laser Writer.

All body copy was printed in 12-point Times Bold, and all captions were set in 10-point Times Bold Italics. Most headlines were set in various sizes of Times Bold. On certain pages, however, special type fonts were used at the section editor's choice for design purposes.

With the exception of supplied portraits, all pictures were taken, processed and printed to size by journalism students or Adviser Conni Durbin.

The basic theme, "We've Got the Look," was carried out in the book through the use of mini-themes for each section. In addition, the triangle, sunglasses and special rule-lines were incorporated throughout the book, especially on the division pages. Original layouts were designed by individual section editors.
